

A night landscape featuring a starry sky, dark mountains, and a calm lake. The sky is filled with numerous stars, and the mountains are silhouetted against the dark blue twilight. The lake in the foreground reflects the light from the sky and the distant lights on the right. The overall scene is serene and majestic.

Matthew 28:16-20

Try reading these four verses in different versions. Which one speaks to you?

p.322-3

“They worshipped him
even though some of them
doubted.”

v. 17 Good News Version

It means thank you in Luganda. Just look at the joy on their faces.

However you are feeling, God just loves to hear from you. Say thank you in song, picture, dance, email, text or find a special place and spend time with Dad.

“Go everywhere and tell everyone the happy news. Tell them I love them so much that I died for them. It’s the Truth that overcomes that terrible lie.”

p.322-3

Pray for someone who does this. Maybe one of our mission partners or for Sunday Club & Youth as they start in church again.
